COUNTY NEWS IN REVIEW

Ship Strike—

A tentative agreement was reported this week by Western Pipe and Steel company and union officials in a labor dispute which threatened South San Francisco with loss of a $10,635,000 government shipbuilding contract.

Tension eased as a new contract proposal, devised by negotiations for the A. F. L. Metal Trades council and employers in a move to eliminate controversy over the "cost of living" wage clause, was to be submitted to the union membership for approval.

NYA Jobs—

Assignments to National Youth administration projects in San Mateo county have increased more than 65 per cent in the last 60 days.

Jobs are available for young men between the ages of 18 and 25 years who can meet requirements. Wages run from $18 to $21 per month for the work, which is strictly part-time.

No Harm Done—

Bay region aviation circles, the Coast Guard and newspapermen, not to say anything of a portion of the general public, were thrown into a dither this week by a false report that two men had "bailed out" of an airplane off the San Mateo County coastside and that the plane itlesf had crashed in flames near Pedro Point.

The report originated with a fishing boat off the coast, which mistook flares dropped by an army testing plane to be men in parachutes.

City Purchasing Bulletin Board

A new policy in calling for bids on city purchases was announced this week by City Purchasing Agent Julius Castelan.

Bids on all purchases will be called for by postings on a bulletin board at the entrance of the city hall. Hereafter postings on the board will be the only method by which the city will announce its intention to make purchases.

U. S. Buys Tin for Industrial Defense

Bids on approximately 1,200,000 pounds of pig tin will be opened Monday by the United States treasury department as part of the federal program for purchasing of strategic war materials from a congressional appropriation of $100,000,000. Photo shows tin, a scarce item these days, being hauled from a mine at Cornwall, England.

Council Rejects Brunswick Bids

All bids for the proposed resurfacing of Brunswick street from Acton to Oliver were rejected at a meeting of the city council Friday night. Specifications have been changed, and new bids will be called for.

Council members unanimously adopted specifications for construction of a sewer at Junipero Serra, north of School street.

The meeting was adjourned early to allow councilmen to attend an organizational meeting called by the local post of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Strangles Self On Knotted Sheets

Ernest Burchell, 313 Winchester street, committed suicide Monday evening by hanging himself, with knotted sheets, to the closet door of his bedroom.

He was discovered at 9:15 p. m. by his wife, who told Daly City police that her husband had seemed despondant lately, and had gone to bed about an hour before she had tried to get in and found the door locked. Police telephoned for an ambulance. On arrival at the Villa sanitarium, Burchell was pronounced dead by Dr. Joseph Leary. Attempts to save his life by means of the "iron lung" were unsuccessful.

Besides his wife, Burchell is survived by a son.

The body is at the W. C. Lasswell and company mortuary, pending funeral arrangements.

Recreation Leaders Study at Burlingame

For increased efficiency and a better understanding of their work, all local WPA Recreation department leaders and instructors are attending Recreation classes in Burlingame.

Covering four hours each week, these classes offer practical courses in crafts, game leadership and social recreation.

Parish Softball Team Wins from Japan Cubs

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Cubs Softball team won, 5-3, when they played the Japanese Cubs on the Jefferson field Saturday afternoon.

Frank Denning is the leader of Our Lady of Perpetual Help team and Mr. Drady has charge of the Japanese boys.

At Horse Show

Elite of New York society will mingle with elite of the horse world Saturday when the annual national horse show opens in Madison Square Garden, signifying the formal start of the winter social season. Busy preparing for the nightly international military jumping contests were two Latin-American entrants. Top: Captain Ramiro Palafox of Mexico, pictured with his horse, "Azteca," who won the contest last year; bottom, Major Eduardo Yanez, Chilean army leader, with his horse, "Chilena."

Children Parade In Hallowe'en Event

Masked and costumed, children from all parts of Daly City and Colma marched in the Hallowe'en parade last night.

Starting at the county line on Mission street, the parade continued to Bepler street and then to Mission Circle where it was judged for prizes by members of the city council.

Prizes for the best costumes were donated by the Shannon Hardware, McGraw Pharmacy, and the Daly City Nut Shop. Ice cream was served to the children and Johnny Dell supplied music for a street dance.

The event was sponsored by the city council, assisted by the Recreation department, Police department and Daly City firemen.

RECREATION DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES FALL PROGRAM

Schedule Includes Many Activities For Young and Old

Local Director Urges Public To Enroll At Once

A fuller and more diversified winter program, which covers practically every phase of social and recreational activity, was announced this week by the WPA Recreation department.

"More and more interest is being taken in recreation activities," says Bruce Boynton, local Recreational department head, " and we are striving to make this district outstanding in its activities."

Boys Club

One of the most notable accomplishments of the Boys club, whose membership numbers more than 150, is its basketball team, which recently trounced the Yellow Cab "B's". This team plays every Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., at the Jefferson gym. The membership in this club, of which Robert Clark is in charge, is not limited, and boys of grammar or high school age may join at any time.

Inside Sports

Inside sports include gymnastics, basketball, volley ball, badminton, ping pong, wrestling, boxing and tumbling, under the direction of Robert Clark. William Brady, former U. S. Army coach and physical director, is instructor of boxing, wrestling and tumbling. A valuable addition to this department is William Anselmo, former San Rafael grammar school coach, who will act as assistant to Clark.

The Jefferson Union high school gym is open daily, 2:30 to 5:30 p. m., and 7 to 10 p. m., to this group, and 9 a. m. to 12 noon, Saturday, when the boys of grammar school age meet for basketball.

Outside Sports

Outside sports include tennis, basketball, touch football, baseball, softball, corkball, track and field hockey, on the Jefferson grounds daily from 3 to 6 p. m., and 9 to 6 p. m., Sunday, with Carl Sirvain in charge. This includes the baseball games of the Daly City and the Colma Merchants and the Daly City Firemen's softball team.

Horseshoes

The horseshoe courts on Los Banos avenue, F. Ny in charge, are the home grounds of the Daly City Horseshoe club, hours 6 to 10 p. m.

The local club has an enviable record of ten straight wins, remaining undefeated, to take both Summer and Fall leagues this year. George McLeod, William Malloney, George Walton and Garland Seybold hold the unique record of pitching horseshoes for fifty hours in the horseshoe marathon last year. A larger court is planned in the new Vista Grande park, which will accomodate League games.

Dramatics

The Community Players have attracted much favorable comment. Their last presentations, three one-act comedies, were given at the Jefferson Union high school auditorium and at Treasure Island. By request the plays will be taken to the Laguna Honda Home on November 17.

Tennis Court To Be Completed In November

Completion of the tennis court at Acton and Brunswick streets within the next three or four weeks was seen today, with an annunocement from the office of City Engineer Julius F. Castelan that bids for the surface of the court are now being advertised and that the twelve-foot surrounding fence is already partly erected.

Surface of the court will be "Laykold," the same surface used on courts at the Palace of Fine Arts in the Marina district, on the Berkeley tennis club courts and on courts at Stanford university and the University of California. It is guaranteed for three years, and will probably last much longer, according to the city engineer.

A notice has been posted on the property of 47 Vendome avenue, officially condemning the building, due to default of repair work by the owner.

Plans have been filed and a permit granted for remodeling the upper part of Eagles hall, into an apartment house.

An automatic Economy Traveling Sprinkler has been purchased for use at Vista Grande park, and with the approval of the city council, the purchase of a mower is planned.

HIGH SCHOOL REHEARSES ORIGINAL PLAY

Jefferson To Give "That Old Gang of Mine" For Armistice Day

The curtain will rise on Jefferson Union high school's first dramatic entertainment of the year, Thursday of next week at 8 p. m., at the school auditorium.

The program includes music, songs and a full-length drama, "That Old Gang of Mine," written especially for this event by the high school dramatic coach, Mr. Sigfred Hansen.

Portraying the horrors of warfare, the six-scene Armistice Day play is packed with action and pathos, treating a timely subject in a serious vein. The play reaches its climax when members of "That Old Gang," all of whom had been killed in the war, return from their graves to give messages to the living.

Players who will be featured in the production include Weston Yapp, Roy De Vincenzi, Charles Yonan, Evan Gillespie, Lawrence Lemos, Fred Chapin, John McCann, La Joie Mon Santo, Emil Harasin, Elaine Hanson, Margaret Berardy, Ruth Morris, Charlotte Weait, Evelyn Ciemoli, Muriel Hollingsworth, Harry Clark and Wallace Bellando. Walter Brewer is assistant director.

The program is open to the public and admission is free. Grammar school students wishing to attend must be accompanied by their parents.

Jefferson cordially invites all parents to see this special entertainment.

CIVIC HALL SUGGESTED IN DALY CITY

Councilmen Meet With Committee In Group Discussion

Possible construction of a civic auditorium for Daly City organizations was once more under discussion this week as the result of an open meeting called Friday evening by Old Glory Post No. 2044, Veterans of Foreign Wars. City councilmen and civic leaders were present at the meeting.

A committee was appointed to meet with the city council, Monday evening, to study the matter in more detail. It was estimated at that time that the project would cost from $25,000 to $45,000.

It was also decided at Monday's meeting to mail a letter to all Daly City organizations. The letter, signed by Mayor Paul G. Selmi, reads as follows:

"The matter of constructing an adequate civic auditorium has been brought to our attention by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Daly City unit. We in turn bring before your organization this suggestion and would appreciate it if your body, after discussing the subject matter at the first meet-of Miss Marie Burton, the group is now planning a new play.

Children's dramatic classes, also under Miss Burton's direction, meet at Pershing school, daily, 2:30 to 5 p. m.

Women's Activities

Rhythmic gymnastics, under the direction of Miss Marie Bell, is a class that has been growing rapidly. This group meets Monday and Wednesday, 7 to 10 p. m., and is devoted to calesthenics performed to music.

Girls' Activities

Under the direction of Miss Marie Bell, this class meets at Woodrow Wilson school, daily, 2:30 to 5 p. m., and is open to all girls of grammar school age. At present a Christmas play is in rehearsal.

Crafts

The re-opening of the crafts department has been received with enthusiasm. Mrs. Campbell is again in charge.

Crafts include paper craft, needle craft, knitting, crocheting, weaving, quilting and puppet making. Special attention is being given now to the making of Christmas cards, dolls and other gifts. The class meets at the Recreation department, 101 Parkview avenue, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 7 to 10 p. m., and 9 a. m. to 12, noon, Monday.

One junior craft group meets at Woodrow Wilson school under the direction of Mrs. Lofink and another at Pershing school under direction of Mrs. Mitchell. Both of these groups meet daily, 2:30 to 5 p. m., and on Saturday, 9 a. m., to 12, noon.

Pottery

This class, under the direction of Miss Jehan Dorn, is one of the newest additions to the Recreation department and will very likely prove one of the most popular. Wheel work, art work, firing and glazing are included. It has been customary in a class of this kind to charge for the use of the kiln, but no fee will be asked here for firing.

This group meets at the Jefferson Union high school, daily 3 to 6 p. m., and Tuesday and Thursday, 7 to 9 p. m.

"We are trying to make the Daly City Recreation department complete in every detail," asserts Boynton, " and we want everyone to feel welcome at any of the classes or activities."

Movie Fan

On a visit to the penal colony on Devil's island, French Guiana, Cameraman Pierre-Andre Martineau discovered the world's most enthusiastic movie fan. He was a convict whose body bore tattooed portraits of Garbo, Marlene Dietrich, Mary Pickford and other film stars. His gallery is now complete; he has no more room for pictures.

Jeff Hi Team Beats San Mateo 10-0 Friday

Jefferson gridders upset the apple cart and made the forecasting wise guys eat their words when they gave San Mateo a thorough and artistic beating on the Jefferson field, Friday.

The way the dopesters had it figured was: San Mateo licked S. S. F., 6-0; S. S. F. beat San Jose, 6-0; and San Jose in turn beat the Jeffs to the tune of 25-0. So, they said, Jefferson will just be a push-over for the doughty San Mateans.

The "push-overs" ended up on top, however, to the tune of 10-0. Coach Johnny Matthews' boys didn't win because they got the breaks; they were not blessed with any streak of luck; but they did out-think, out-fight and out-play San Mateo, and that's playing football in any man's language.

The first quarter was played without any time out, and was a struggle in which neither team made any spectacular gains or pulled any unusual plays. Played within both twenty-five yard lines, there was no serious threat by either team.

Ruppert, Bannantyne and Dykeman went in for the second quarter and it looked like a repetition of the first quarter until three minutes before the half. The ball was snapped back to Christen, who held it on the thirty yard line for Giusti to boot. Giusti's kick looked doubtful for a moment, but went sailing over for a field goal. Score at the half: 3-0.

The Jeffs got going again in the third quarter with a Capps to Giusti pass that was good for twenty yards and put the ball on San Mateo's ten yard line. Again the Capps to Giusti combination worked, this time for nine yards. Then on an off-tackle play, Columbene carried the ball over for the score. Giusti's attempt at conversion was blocked, but San Mateo went off-side and Jefferson had another try. This time Giusti made the point.

The last quarter was another hard-fought battle, with the Mateans trying desperately for a score, but when the game ended the count was still 10-0 for Jefferson.

San Mateo's Keesling, McAbee, McNally and Monisteri showed to advantage and gave the Jeffs many a tense moment, and with a line average of better than 190 pounds, San Mateo is a veritable power house. Jefferson played sixty minutes of high pressure football and showed more teamwork than in any previous game.

Line-up of the teams follows:

San Mateo		Jefferson
Keesling	LER	Currier
Humphries	LTR	Faulk
Williams	LGR	Stephens
Milword	C	Rigler
Noble	RGL	Eldrup
Boensch	RTL	Hertz
McNally	REL	Poddig
Frietas	Q	Christen
Bevier	LHR	Columbene
McAbee	RHL	Giusti
Monisteri	F	Capps

Ornate and Lavish Use of Fur Registers on Style Program

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

TRIM your new dress, jacket, or coat with fur and you can't go wrong. Everything from bedjackets shoes, gloves and handbags to coats, dresses, suits, jackets and ensembles is being trimmed with fur this season. You can have as little an amount of fur or as lavish a trimming of fur as you wish just so your costume be furred in some stylish way.

It adds greatly to the zest of the mode in that designers are displaying such exciting imagination and originality in the new fur treatments. Whether the garment has a dab of fur here and there or a whole lot of rich fur there is intrigue in its method. New uses of fur include stunning shoulder trims in epaulet effects which on form-fitting cloth coats make one look wide at the top, accenting the now-so-fashionable tiny waistline. Vestees of fur, notably beaver or Persian lamb or gray kidskin, plastered on the front of cloth coats are chic as can be. Dabs of fur on pockets matching narrow fur collars subscribe to the "touch of fur" edict. Fur that binds edges give "tone" to many a suit jacket.

One of the most important uses of fur is the new border treatments. These show early Victorian influence in that quaint borderings and bandings (sometimes row above row) appear on many of the smartest dresses and coats.

Gray for fall is the talk o' town and showing in the coat sections are many smartly styled models in gray wool that are attractively trimmed with gray kidskin or squirrel or with chinchilla, also sheared beaver. The revival of chinchilla as a fashionable fur is a notable outstanding event this season. The enthusiasm for red which is so apparent throughout style centers this fall leads to coats and costumes of this gay hue that are trimmed with contrasting fur. Striking are the new ripped-in-at-the-waist coats recently shown.

A newcomer to the fur fashion picture is burgundy-dyed silver fox, processed by bleaching the skins and dipping them to a beguiling reddish red tone. See it in unique and lavish treatment on the jacket suit pictured to the left. A velvet pill box in matching burgundy is worn with coque feather trim in like color.

Slate blue and soft gray was selected for the eye-arresting ensemble shown to the right in the group. Gray caracul is deftly manipulated to fashion the close-fitting collar, full length sleeves and combination muff handbag. The coat zips from the neck to its belted waist where the skirt hangs in unpressed pleats. The turban is in slate blue to match the smartly detailed coat. The dress is gray.

Ideal for early autumn is the costume centered in the group. This dressy ensemble includes a crepe frock with a bolero that has fox fur sleeves. The color is beige, to match with a wrapped turban of the crepe is added plus suede bag and gloves.

The arrangement of fur as portrayed in the inset reflects unerring chic. Here black crepe and silver fox combine to achieve a stunning costume. The dress is simply made with a circular skirt. The placement of fur on the brief jacket is intricate and artful. A draped turban with black aigrettes posed at the front tunes to the call for "stylish black."

Safety and Style Mark Champions

Thumbnailed, here are a few of the stellar features of the Studebaker Champions as noted in the 1940 models:

Sealed-beam headlamps providing 50 per cent more light.

Steering column lever to lock hood.

Super-streamline styling with hidden door hinges and door handles which flow into the chromium belt molding.

High-visibility — total of 2058 square inches of exposed window area.

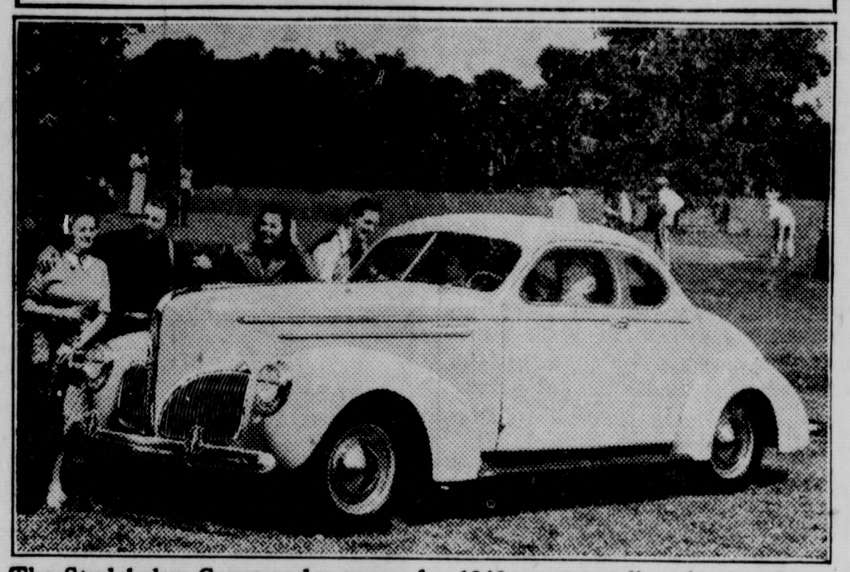
Lively lightness, the weight about 600 pounds less other cars of comparable class.

What's This? Hollywood for Pop?

Rumor around the Recreation department has it that Carl (Pop) Sirvain is going around these days behind a false beard and dark glasses, trying to avoid persistent talent scouts from Hollywood, since he proved his versatility as an actor in two plays at the Jefferson auditorium, October 18.

But Pop insists that he is a home town boy, loyal to Daly City, and refuses all offers of a career in the talkie capital to become a glamour boy.

Ah, Youth, Take a Look!



The Studebaker Commander coupe for 1940—a streamliner in the ultra-youthful manner. This car was drawn by Raymond Loewy, executed by Studebaker engineers, built by Studebaker craftsmen and bids all who are young or all who have young ideas to climb in and go places.

Ostrich Blocks Traffic

Invading Nairobi, Kenya colony, an ostrich took a stand in the middle of the main street and held up motorists until a woman sounded the siren on her car, at which the bird stepped aside and let the line pass.

Parking Penalty

"No parking" drives at Southwestern college, Memphis, Tenn., are posted with brightly painted signs proclaiming, "Penalty for parking on drive, deflated tires." It's enforced, too.

Vacant Prison

In the 25 years since it was built the gaol building at Port Moresby, Papua, reserved for white prisoners, has had only two occupants—the last more than 10 years ago.

New Play Opens On Alcazar Stage

At 8:20 p. m., tonight, Vernon Smith's "Prelude to Paradise" will have its world premiere on the stage of the Alcazar theater.

"Prelude to Paradise," according to director Michael Jeffrey, who also staged and directed "White Cargo," has everything the play-going public seeks in entertainment—all packed into one play—the fastest moving picture he has ever directed.

Not only does the play tell a love story, said to be greater than

Anthony Caruso and Louise Kiger

"Seventh Heaven," but in its breathless pace are crowded more hearty laughs and hilariously funny situations than are ordinarily found in a comedy.

A roaring mining town in Harlan county, Kentucky, is the locale—thrills, excitement and a vivid story of lusty, hearty pleasure-loving miners are also vividly told.

Judge Clay Fines Traffic Offenders

In default of a $50 fine, Charles Rogers, 807 Franklin street, was sentenced to 25 days in jail, at Judge Wade H. Clay's court on Friday. Rogers was charged with driving while intoxicated.

Two traffic offenders were fined $10 each for speeding; George Edward Paulsen, 1375 Thirty-fifth avenue, San Francisco, and Melville F. Schlamm, Lomita Park.

Motorists who paid $5 each for speeding were Henry John DeVries, 1339 Folsom street; J. C. Feige, 2135 California street, and Robert Hayden, 5516 Fulton street.

Meyer Gross, 783 Mission street, was fined $2.50 for speeding. Clara Irene Sirex, San Carlos, was given a $2.50 suspended fine, also for speeding.

Ray Chee Teung Chin, 225 Bridge street, paid $1 for going through a signal.

Horseshoe Club Plans Winter League Victory

A Winter League has been arranged in which the Daly City horseshoe club will play the Marina, Mission, Amazon, Burlingame and Redwood City clubs.

The first game is scheduled with Marina, November 4, on the Marina courts. As the competing clubs feel that the local boys have been at the top of the winning list long enough, tougher competition than ever is expected.

Appoint Assistant For Local Athletics

William Anselmo, former coach and physical education instructor at San Rafael grammar school, was last week appointed assistant to Robert Clark, local athletic director for the WPA Recreation department.

Anselmo was also coach at San Anselmo grammar school at one time. He takes up his duties here immediately.

D. C. Rod and Gun Beats S. F. Group

Winning with a total of 19.521 against the 15.993 of the San Francisco Rod and Gun club, Daly City Rod and Gun club took the last leg of the surf casting contest on the Jefferson Union high school grounds, Sunday, and now have the trophy permanently in their possession.

Daly City also won the softball game, 4-3, Sunday, against the San Francisco Rod and Gun team. One more game is to be played this year to decide the softball trophy.

In the surf casting contest F. Basich was high man on both teams with an average of .337. Other averages were L. Bianchini, .333; G. Wheeler .249; R. Basich .246; C. Curry .198. High man on the San Francisco team was E. Parrish with an average of .305.

Both surf casting and softball trophies were donated by the Northern California Bait Dealers association.

Irish Chatter

In a contest in the Ulster counties of Ireland, fast-talking children bested their parents, 34 to 28, by accurately mouthing such phrases as "Will Willie Wilkins wink or will Willie Walkins walk?" "Which switch, miss, is the switch for Ipswich, Miss.?" and "Should such a shapeless sash such shabby stitches show?"

Community Players Schedule New Show

The WPA Recreation department Community Players, under the direction of Miss Marie Burton, will present their three one-act comedies, by special request, at the Laguna Honda Home, November 17.

This will be the third time that the Community Players have presented this group of plays. The comedies were given before at the Jefferson auditorium, October 18, and at Treasure Island, October 23.

The original cast which included Dorothy Selmi, Frances Poket, Mrs. R. T. Krogh, Jean Sirvain, Elmer Shannon, Carl Sirvain, Ralph Capps and Alfred Bulf, will be the same with the exception of Ralph Capps. Ralph, who also did a tap dance specialty for the group, is being replaced by Jack Murray, but will likely be back in the cast when the plays are presented at the Daly City theater in the near future.

A brand new three-act play is scheduled to go into production soon, and casting starts imediately at the Little Theater at Jefferson Union high school, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Albert Marcucci, who does solo numbers, has been appointed stage manager by Miss Burton. Ruth Morris is the official accompanist for specialty acts.

Retail Petroleum Dealers Recommend "Yes" On 5

Board of Directors of the Retail Petroleum Dealers Association, Inc., in meeting October 17 recommended a "yes" vote on Proposition No. 5 at the November 7 election.

Following are stated four of their 20 reasons for recommending a "yes" vote:

By preventing waste of gas and oil, both above and below ground, it will tend to hold down the prices of petroleum products to the public.

By preventing costly, wasteful practices in the oil fields and the further overbuilding of service stations, it will tend to hold down to a fair level the competitive price of gasoline and oil products.

We find that it is not a "monopolistic" measure of any one company, but is supported by approximately 90 per cent of the producing companies, both independent and major, and, therefore, represents the overwhelming sentiment of those to be affected.

Oil is California's largest and most important industry, and is entitled to state regulation in the interests of the industry and the public in the same manner that railroads, bus systems, truckers, and many other industries are regulated by state boards.

Tax Free! Debt Free!

CALIFORNIA How and Now!

By Charles J. Husband

(This article is a continuation of the discussion begun in the October 4 "Record" by Mr. Husband.)

Let's examine this new revenue for a moment. The 510 million dollars per year of new revenue is produced by a 3 per cent levy against a trifle over one-half only of the new business created, and not one penny of it is charged against the original 30 billion dollars per year of business now in existence. It might be said that we have merely charged a sales commission of a trifle over one and one-half per cent upon the newly created business to produce this new revenue.

The next step in our analysis is to determine the use to which this new 510 million dollar fund is to be put, and after determining the uses, which are provided for this fund, how much balance will be left to replace the remaining tax burden. In the Amendment itself, it is provided that a sufficient amount of this new revenue shall be used each year to maintain, at its present level, the revenue now received from the retail sales tax. This sales tax revenue, at present, amounts to about 88 million dollars per year and a large portion of it is used for the support of our educational system. It is remotely possible that retail transactions in warrants may exceed 50 per cent of total retail transactions, thereby reducing by a small percentage this 88 million dollars per year in sales tax revenue despite the doubled volume of business. This then would make a charge against this new 510 million dollar fund of approximately 20 million dollars per year. After deducting this

"Thirty-Thurs." Plan Analyzed

By John M. Peirce, Tax Counselor, California Taxpayers' Assn.

(This is the fourth installment of the article against "Ham and Eggs" by Mr. Peirce.)

Proposed $20,000,000 State Bond Issue Would Add to Mounting Public Debt.

In order to provide working capital for the proposed credit clearings bank, this measure authorizes the issuance of $20,000,000 in State of California bonds. These bonds would be guaranteed by the State, which means that they would become a charge upon the taxpayers if the pension plan failed to operate as anticipated. The bonded indebtedness of the State and its political subdivisions is already $1,450,000,000 and public credit should not be jeopardized by adding to it. Curiously, this bank would be neither strictly public nor private. It would be controlled by the administrator and his three assistants, but owned by stockholders who would have no voice in the management.

Administrator Would Have Unprecedented Power and Authority

The act does not contain the usual checks and balances upon which the system of American government is based. It provides the administrator, who, until the election in 1944, would be one of the present promoters of the plan, with powers unknown in this country. Among other things, he need not answer to the Governor, the Legislature, or the State Judiciary. He would not be dependent on legislative appropriations or regulations. The act specifically prohibits the courts from interference with his administration of the plan. He could have, if the act operates as intended, as high as $750,000,000 in cash from the sale of redemption stamps under his direct or indirect control without having to place the money in the State Treasury or report it to the State Controller. In the face of this great financial responsibility he would be required to furnish an indemnity bond only to the extent of $50,000. Finally, he may call special elections for the purpose of proposing amendments to the act. Giving dictatorial power of this kind to one man is indeed contrary to existing public policy concerning democratic government.

Conclusion

If the voters were to approve this plan and the courts declined to interfere with its operation, economic law would undoubtedly dispose of it in one of the following ways: First, if merchants refused to accept the retirement warrants the plan would probably culminate in glutting public treasuries with an unacceptable medium of exchange which would temporarily paralyze government finances. Second, if the merchants accepted the retirement warrants and present economic values were retained, the cost of redemption stamps would soon become prohibitive and the plan would collapse. Third, if the merchants accepted the retirement warrants and present economic values were displaced by skyrocketing price levels in terms of warrants, the entire business structure of the State would be thrown out of balance within itself and with the rest of the Nation, the result of which would be economic chaos.

Fifth Installment

History of Daly City Fire Department

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth installment of an informal history of the Daly City Fire department, dedicated to "those who serve—not for personal gain—but for the welfare of all."

Through the cooperation of William J. C. Goldkuhl, E. W. Goldkuhl sr., and Edward W. Goldkuhl jr., authors, and the Daly City Record this interesting story is made available to the general public.)

March 27, 1913, saw the organization of Company Number 4 in the Daly City Fire department. Temporary chairman was H. Bloomington and secretary, Charles L. Biebel. When the new company was organized, the following members and officers responded to the roll call: Phillip Ross, captain; Charles L. Biebel, secretary; W. M. Hintz, lieutenant; A. Hilton, treasurer; and H. Hauter, fire marshal. The members: Eugene Lucey, A. Rovengo, Jim Long, George Holbrook, Edward Cavagnaro, Silvio Landini and George J. Dohering, with Al Stockton, honorary member. During the year which witnessed the formation of Number 4, E. Ford was chief of all Daly City companies. Meeting place of this new company was for a time the Crocker Tract hall, and arrangements were immediately made to have a benefit dance to raise funds for the treasury. In April of 1913, action was taken by the new company to build its own fire house, and the spirit with which the proposal was met is evidenced in the donation of one hundred dollars and the use of a lot offered by Mr. Rosencranz of the Crocker Estate company.

The general department, now composed of five fire companies scattered in strategic positions over the town, made the fire fighting protection of Daly City as nearly perfect as volunteers could make it.

During this year, also, the town was making rapid strides of progress; action was being taken by the citizens to have paving put in and a system of fire alarms installed to replace the Hillcrest general alarm. Once established, the signals in this system were as follows: Mission tract, two bells; Vista Grande north, three bells; Vista Grande south, four bells; east of Mission, five bells; Crocker tract, six bells. Arrangements were made to have an "s. o. s." slide shown in the Nickleodeon when there was a fire to inform any fire department members present.

At many of the fires in the early days, the San Francisco Fire department was of valuable assistance, and they remained always willing to lend any aid possible.

(This history will be continued in the Daly City Record next week, November 8.)

30-Thursday Simplified

Credits, bonds, clearings, exchanges, millions of dollars—the basic principles of Ham and Eggs have been lost in a deluge of such talk. Following its "open door" policy, The Record has during the past month published to-the-point arguments for and against proposition No. 1.

Now that election day is just one week away, it is imperative to become practical-minded and view the facts of Ham and Eggs.

"You can't get something for nothing" is an economic principle proven time and time again since the world began. It naturally follows that if citizens over 50 years of age are to receive $30 in warrants every Thursday, someone must pay for them. Since warrants are proposed to purchase the necessities of life—food, clothing, shelter—the producers of these commodities, the working men and women of California, would actually pay for 30-Thursday.

Don't misunderstand, Mr. and Mrs. Working Man, Ham and Eggs are not going to drop from heaven; you're going to pay for them.

There are other aspects of proposition No. 1 that should be scrutinized carefully. Powers of the administrator are above the governor and legislature. The amendment provides that courts shall have no jurisdiction over the administration of the act. Is this the American way of doing things?

Current developments seem to indicate that Ham and Eggs will not bring the security to our elder citizens that it promises—for wholesalers, retailers, crafts, trades are already declaring that they cannot and will not accept warrants.

In conclusion The Record invites you to read the entire act. Make a decision for yourself. VOTE NEXT TUESDAY!

Patchwork and Good Government

Citizens of San Mateo county will be called upon November 7 to vote on a charter amendment providing for the abolition of the office of county executive.

To those who are familiar with the charter and its background this measure is readily recognized as political patchwork and not a step in the direction of good government.

The county proposal was placed on the ballot by the board of supervisors. It could have been put there by a people's initiative if the citizens had so desired.

The Executive and Board of Supervisors are both elected by the people. In our opinion it is as unfair for the Board of Supervisors to initiate a measure to abolish the Executive as it would be for the Executive to initiate a measure to abolish the Board.

Rather shame-faced, we admit that improvements could be made in the county charter, but to abolish the Executive, in our opinion, is not the starting place.

Progress toward better county government can be made only when sincere recommendations are made to the voters by a citizens charter study group.

The Record feels that one of the best recommendations such a group could make would be: To give each township more thorough and personal representation on the Board of Supervisors by providing that the member from each district be elected by voters in his own township and not by the county at large as is now the practice.

WOMEN LIKE NEW FORDS ASSERTS DEALER CHAIRMAN

1940 Ford Models Feature Beauty, Style and Comfort

"The biggest news in the automobile industry today is the shift in sentiment of women motorists for the 1940 Ford cars."

Otto V. Burberick, Burlingame Ford dealer and chairman of the Bay Counties Ford Dealers committee, made that statement recently following a meeting of the aggressive group which is engaged in a large newspaper promotion campaign in San Francisco, Alameda, San Mateo, Marin and Contra Costa counties. A. J. Bertini, National Auto company, 7360 Mission street, local Ford dealer, is a member of the Bay Counties group.

"Ford designers and engineers collaborated to provide hundreds of pleasing features for women in the 1940 line," Burberick stated. "To mention a few, there are the finger-tip gearshift mounted on the steering column, the beautiful 'barrel' dash with its easy-reading instruments, the voguish interiors with exceptionally handsome color harmonies in upholstery and trim and accessories, the new quietness of operation, and the easy-acting improved hydraulic brakes.

"However, the reception given these cars by women and their enthusiastic preference went beyond the hopes of the designers and engineers. The trend is taking place nationally, and nowhere is it more pronounced than here in northern California where the motor car is an important thing in the personal and social life of women.

"Of 1344 women personally interviewed on Treasure Island, 1107 said that they preferred the new Ford cars. In our current advertising, we therefore state women are now showing prefernece for the new Fords 2 to 1. However, if the exact figures were used, the preference would be almost 4 to 1."

No. 5 Opposition In Campaign Drive

Striking at monopolistic control and threatened infiltration of dictatorship over industry, a Northern California campaign against state oil control is gaining impetus daily under leadership of the Independent Petroleum & Consumers Association.

The campaign is aimed to defeat Proposition No. 5 on the November ballot, a referendum on Assembly Bill 1926, which won adoption in the closing hours of the much discussed stop-clock session that terminated the last State Legislature.

The bill would place sweeping powers of control over the state's gigantic oil industry in the hands of a three-man commission answerable to virtually no higher body.

It adoption is being fought by independent oil dealers on the joint basis that it would be ruinous not only to them but to public welfare.

Defeat of the measure, the independents contend, would prevent monopolistic control, avert increased consumer prices of gasoline and other oil products through retention of competitive business, and assure continued employment to hundreds of thousands of Californians.

"The public knows the story of the 'little fellow' in the struggle against monopoly," according to J. A. Smith, president of the independent association. "This is our story all over again. California defeated the Sharkey bill in 1932 by nearly a million votes. We believe they will even more decisively defeat Proposition No. 5 at the November election."

South City Nite At Lovchen Hall

Staging their big South City night, the Night Owls club of Colma and South San Francisco will hold another special dance this coming Saturday evening, which the public is invited to attend.

The Night Owls sponsor a dance the first and third Saturday of each month at Lovchen Gardens, Colma. Popular union music features smooth dance-time for these affairs; refreshments are available, and the decorations are in keeping with each occasion. The dances have attracted large crowds, who enjoy the gaiety and fun of the Night Owls' dances. Admission prices are nominal.

"We expect this dance to be one of the most successful held this year," one of the club officials said today. "Bring all your friends and have a good time with us Saturday night."

amount from the new fund, we find an available balance of 490 million dollars per year.

Slow Sale Idea Absurd

The next charge against this fund is that the inaugural expense of the Retirement Life Payments' Administrator's set-up shall be paid from this fund. This is fixed at 700 thousand dollars, which we believe will be more than ample, but let us presume that this amount was reached. This leaves an amount of 489 million dollars available in round figures. The next charge is for inaugural expense of the Credit Clearings Bank for which a 20 million dollar bond issue is provided. The rather absurd presumption that these bonds of the State of California could not be sold or that the capital stock of the bank would not be subscribed can be met by providing that this 20 million dollars shall be deducted from this new gross income tax fund, and if we deduct this whole amount from the remaining 489 million dollar balance, we then have an available fund of 469 million dollars.

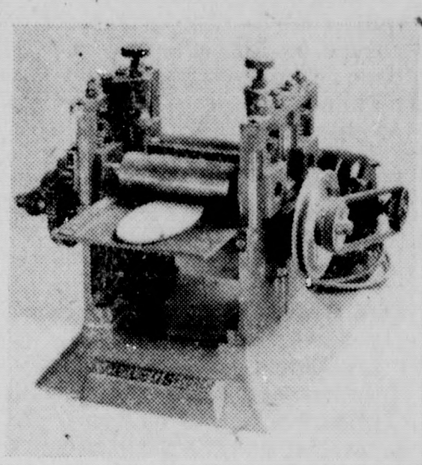
Next, comes the first direct relief to a great mass of our citizens --the provision that owner-occupied homes and farms to a value of three thousand dollars shall be exempt from taxation. I say that this is the first operation affecting the great mass of citizens, because this exemption will become effective even before warrants are issued. It will be unnecessary for those owners occupying their own homes to pay the taxes on them on December 5th of this year. The amount that they would otherwise collect from the taxes on these homes, will be less than 30 million dollars per year. Assuming that 30 million dollars is the amount that will be needed, and deducting this amount from the remaining balance of this new gross income tax fund, we then have left available for the remaining provision a fund of 439 million dollars in the first year of operation. In the years to follow, of course, the first year's charges for the inauguration expense for the administrator and the Credit Clearings Bank will not be repeated, leaving an available fund after the first year of approximately 460 million dollars per year.

Realizing that good business dictates a pay-as-you-go policy, the framers of the California Retirement Life Warrants Act have provided that the balance of this fund shall be used first to retire the bonded indebtedness of the State of California, and all of its political subdivisions, in order that we might be a debt-free State and no longer pay a tribute of interest on this indebtedness. Our total amount of bonded indebtedness amounts to approximately 1200 million dollars. The application of the balance of this fund for 3 years on the basis of 439 millions the first year and 460 millions for each of the second and third years, is more than sufficient to retire this entire bonded indebtedness in 3 years.

Before making the application of this 460 million dollars to the remaining tax burden, let us take a look for a moment at that remaining burden. You remember we left this burden at 450 million dollars after having reduced this figure from the original 900 million dollars by the elimination of the charity tax charge. Now we have eliminated the charge for interest and sinking fund payments on a 1200 million dollar debt which amounts to approximately 100 million dollars per year. Hence, we must deduct this savings from the remaining 450 million dollar tax bill. This leaves a charge against California taxpayers of 350 million dollars per year and we have a 460 million dollar fund with which to retire this entire tax charge, leaving all taxes eliminated and a surplus of 110 million dollars per year to provide more adequate governmental service.

Summing up, let us remember that this new fund comes from only a small charge of less than 2 per cent on total new business created by this Act and that its effect is to remove all of the present taxes collected by our multitudinous forms of taxation. A study of these figures and their effect upon merchants, manufacturers, and agriculturists will thoroughly prove that there is more of a benefit in this proposal to every other class of persons in the State of California than there is to those persons over the age of 50 who will receive $30.00 a Week for Life.

New Invention



Leo's Super-Scorer, a machine which processes 1800 half-soles per hour, has recently been patented by the inventors, Leo Kellejian, proprietor of the American Shoe company, and Charles Axt, local glass man. The invention is expected to save hundreds of hours of shoe-repair labor, doing the work of thirty men in a day.

Several large Eastern firms are interested in the commercial value of the machine.

PARAMOUNT STARLETS REVUE TO APPEAR ON STAGE OF DALY CITY THEATRE SUNDAY

Famous Stars Appear in Person With Ten Acts

Next Sunday will be a Red Letter day for patrons of the Daly City theatre because they will see on the stage, in person, 22 motion picture and radio artists.

From start to finish the big ten-act revue is packed with song and dance—but out of a big cast comes one little girl who will steal into your heart, tiny Betty Hughes, featured performer of the internationally famous Hughes' quartet, and one of the juvenile stars of the Bing Crosby picture, "The Star Maker."

With her lilting songs, warm personality, twinkling eyes and twinkling feet she steals the show from the older boys and girls—from big sister Ruth, Bill Riley of the Zane Grey picture, "Wanderer of the Wasteland"—from the entire cast that includes 22 persons!

And from Rudy Valee's program comes another charmer—a dark haired opposite of the bubbling Betty—blues singer Mable Henderson, a tiny girl, but with a glorious voice!

These are only a few. There are adagio dances, instrumental selections, songs—and a whole scene torn from the picture "The Star Maker" and re-created by the entire cast.

The Paramount Starlets Revue is presented by Barry Breden, and handled on the stage by Roy Gordon, discoverer of Shirley Temple and Judy Garland, and will be seen at the matinee at 4:30 p. m. The evening presentation will be at 9:30 p. m.

On the screen will be "Lady of the Tropics" with glamourous Hedy Lamarr and Robert Taylor; also Pat O'Brien and Ann Sheridan in "Indianapolis Speedway."

Indians Prepare Big Variety Show

A full two-hour program will be presented by Jefferson's sensational young swingsters, the Indians of Rhythm, under the direction of Dante P. Lembi, at the big Variety Show scheduled for 8:15 p. m. Friday, November 3, at the Grand avenue school, auditorium in South San Francisco.

A benefit affair, the program will feature a large cash prize, in addition to a full evening of fast entertainment. The committee in charge includes J. H. Price, chairman; George McMills and Matthew Colliver.

The Indians of Rhythm have already proved their ability to swing their way into the hearts of an audience several times this year, notably at the Exposition, the Daly City theatre and Aquatic park. Several new singers and players have been added to the sophisticated Indians, and specialty numbers round out a program that has made Jefferson's name famous all up and down the Peninsula.

Final Services Held For Mrs. Mable Norvell

Thirty-seven years of age, she is survived by her husband, John Norvell. Interment was at Olivet Memorial Park.

"What a beautiful new floor lamp!"

"Yes, it is amazing how it changed my whole living room!"

When you buy a lamp for your home, make sure it will be able to produce enough light and the proper kind of light for comfortable seeing. Such a lamp is pictured here. Note the three important essentials of this I.E.S. Better Sight Lamp. And if you will remember these three points you will be getting a lamp that gives you your money's worth in proper lighting. It is a real pleasure to read and work by the light of a lamp that gives enough of the right kind of light. You will be delighted, too, how it will make a room glowingly radiant and beautiful.

A three-light bulb big enough to do a real lighting job. 100-200-300 watts for the average room. 200-300-500 watts for rooms with high ceilings.

A diffusing bowl under the shade provides pleasing light—softly diffused and without glare. Diffused light is comforting to the eyes.

A shade with a white lining produces one-third again as much light as one with a dark colored lining. Ideal reading light at all times.
